A SELLIOUS AFFRAY AT TOONA. Oil Thursday afternoon hest artaffery took ments stationed here and the City Police. It appears that the four soldiers were returning to Camp from the city, and when near Names poit, one of thein baught hold of a hired ob gram and asked the driver to take him and his outpradia into camp, but as no payment was hiade the shigramwalla refused to drive them, on which a number of the police interfered in the matter, and from what we have beard, we believe in the first instance assaulted the soldiers, upon which an affray quaked. These unfortunate coldiers were only four, and the police and the speciators present mustered strong, and they further bad the advantage of G. sanited the soldities and pelted them with alones; and when they tried to escape from the treatment they were requiring, the police and populace gave chair, and offer a consider. able atvitable sunceeded in capturing them in the camp bazuar, and making them prisoners, took them back to the city. Il what we have heard of the conduct of the police in this affair be true, we can only say that it reflects but little oredit on them, as the whole thing was most cowardly. We are not in possession of saly official particulars regarding the matter, and so we can only give the story as it was the particulars connected with this disgrapeful broken beads and severe bruites took place yesterday in the afternoon between three soldiers and some of the "Nilas's Pelt" Poons Police in the city. The real cause of the fraction is not as yet known. But the cocimpation, resterday, from the 'Names Test' road leading ye one to believe that a frightful murder had been trying to fell them down like bullocks, amid the timels and jeers of the excited multitude. Some of the rabble took to stoping the soldiers. The cowardly example wie followed by the police effected their cacape, defending themselves to the list against odds.
